CAMP ANDY JOHNSON, Near Nashville, Tenn., March 27, 1962. O'N LEAVING MUNFORDSVILLE, KENTUCKY, THE officers and men of the 1st Irish (35th) regiment Indiana volum eers, were mortified to find that our beautiful stand of Irish colors, presented the regiment by the patriotic Irish ladles of Indianapolis, had been stolen

The theft could only have been committed by some person wearing the uniform of an officer, and who by that means could have free ingress and egress through our Our regiment will to-morrow take up the line of march toward the South in the face of an armed enemy, and we are unable to express to our friends at home the di-ap-pointment and sadness we feel in not being able to carry with us the Irish banner of which all of us were so justly proud. We do not however envy the sensation which the wretch must experience who found himself at any time so contemptible and degraded as to violate the courtesy extended him, and commit so infamous a theft.

The undersigned officers of the Irish regiment will pay one hundred dollars for the recovery and delivery to us of the flag herein referred to, and for the apprehension and retention of the thief until he can be tried for his crime.

NEW AND VALUABLE WORK

FOR LAWYERS, JUSTICES OF THE PEACE, And all Connected with the Judicial Administration of the Government.

THE STATUTE

Of the State of ndiana, CONTAINING THE REVISED STATUTES OF 1852 with the amendments thereto, and the subsequen legislation, with notes and references . judicial decisions. EDITED BY JAMES GAVIN AND OSCAR ORD. Volume 1, Published by

BINGHAM & DOUGHTY,

INDIANAPOLIS. Judge David McDonald, one of the most eminent lawyers of the State, volunteered the followinnmendation of the work:

STATUTES OF INDIANA, BY GAVIN & HORD .- Some months

ago, the above named gentlemen issued proposals for publishing, in two volumes octavo of some 800 pages each, al the statutes of the State passed since 1851, with annotations. The first volume of the work is now published; and the manner of its execution, both mechanically and editorially, deserves the thanks of the profession. The imperfect manner of publishing our statutes under State authority, has always been a source of great inconience to the Indiana Lawyer. The revision of 1852, as well as the statutes passed since that year, might almost as well have been published without any index. Up to this time the lawyer has constantly been under the necessity of turning over, leaf by leaf, the volumes o our statutes to find any particular enactment. And every one knows how annoying and provoking this is, especially in the hurry of business as in our Courts. Happily for the rofession, the publication under consideration promises a better state of things in the future. The first volume o Messrs, Gavin & Hord's work contains an excellent and opions index, which to every practicing lawyer in the tate is itself worth the money which the volume costs.

The volume under review contains another excellence Allits pages are supplied with valuable marginal indices, to that a glance at the margin is sufficient to apprise the eader of the contents of the page. Another matter of great importance to the lawyer in this volume is a good collection of the subjects of all legislation since 1851. Heretofore, the lawyer in examining our legislation on any given subject had first to find what was relevant to it in the Revision of 1852, and then to turn over the pages of the volumes of subsequent Statutes, to see how far recent legislation may have repealed or mod fied the provisions contained in that Revision, and even then he would often feel doubt whether he had found ail the legislation on the subject of his inquiry. Messrs. Gavin and Hord have relieved us of all this trouble and doubt. They have collected together in consecutive pages all the statutes made since 1851, on the same subject. Thus, on pages 373 to 377 of their first volume they have collected all our legislation, now in force, on the subject o husband and wife, including the act of 1852 and three act of 1857. And they have followed the same mode o coocation, in appropriate consecutive pages, in regard to all other topics of legislation. A still more valuable feature are the copious and accurate notes contained in the volume in question. This vol-ume includes the Constitution of the United States, the institution of Indiana, and several important acts of Virginia and statutes of Congress, and a large portion o our own statutes now in force. The numerous decisions o the Courts on the various provisions contained in these Constistutions and statutes are found at the bottom of the appropriate pages, in the form of neat, brief and accurate noteand references. Messrs. Gavin & Hord seem to have performed this part of their work exceedingly well. It must have cost them much care and labor. By it they have greatly lessened the labor of the practising lawyer, and have well merited his grateful approval. In every respect the volume under review is highly red-its editors, as well as to the mechanical skill and neatness of its publishers, and it must raise the just expectation or the profession, as to the value of the second volume, which we understand will be forthcoming in a few months, and which will contain the code of pleading and practice o 1852, with subsequent amendments and other statutes. Without any concert with the editors or publishers of the volume in question, the writer of this article has been induced to compose and publish this little review of the book, therefore, deems it but just to them, without being solicited to it by any one, to publish this notice of the boo-DAVID McDONALD. over his own proper name. Prof. O. J. Wood, Dear Sir-In the latter part of the year 1852, while attending to the State and National Law School of the State of New York, my hair, from a cause unknown to me, commenced falling off very rapidly, so that in the short space of six months, the whole upper part of my scalp was entirely bereft of its covering, and much of the remaining portion upon the side and back part of my head shortly after became gray, so that you will not be surprised when I tell you that upon my return to the State of Indiana, my more casual acquaintances were not so much at a loss to discover the cause of the change in my appearance, as my more intimate acquaint-ances to recognize me at all.

I at once made application to the most skillful phy-sicians in the country, but receiving no assurances from them that my hair could again be restored, I was forced to become reconciled to my fate, until fortunately in the latter part of the year 1857, your restorative was recommended to me by a druggist, as being the most reliable Hair Restorative in use. I tried one bottle, and found to my great satisfaction that it was producing the desired effect. Since that time I have used seven dollars' worth of your Restorative, and as a result, have a rich coat of very soft black hair, which no money can buy. As a mark of my gratitude for your labor and skill in the production of so wonderful an article, I have recom-mended its use to many of my friends and acquaintances who, I am happy to inform you, are using it with like effect. Very respectfully.

A. M. LATTA. Attorney and Counselor at Law

Prof O. J. Wood: Dear Sir—Your Hair Restorative is rapidly gaining popularity in this community. I have had occasion to lay prejudice aside, and give your Hair Resto-rative a perfect test. SPALDING'S THROAT CONFECTIONS During the year 1854, I was so unfortunate as to be thrown from my sulky against a rock near the road side, from which my head received a most terrible blow, causing a great deal of irritation, which communicated to the brain and external surface of the head, from the effect of which my hair was finally destroyed over the entire surface of the head. From the time I first discovered its dropping, however, up to the time of its total disappearance, I employed everything I could think of, being a pro-fessional man myself; and, as I thought understanding the soa to belive produced a very happy result; two months after the first application, I had as beautiful a head of young hair as I ever saw, for which I certainly owe you my most sincere thanks. Rest assured, dear sir, I shall recommend your remedy to all inquirers; moreover, I shall use my influence, which I flatter myself to say, is not

You can publish this if you think proper. Yours, very respectfully, M. J. WRIGHT, M. D. Office of the Jeffersonian, Phillippi, Va., Dec. 12, '58.

Dear Sir:—I feel it my duty as well as my pleasure, to state to you the following circumstances, which you can use as you think proper. A gentleman of this place, (a lawyer,) has been bald ever since his early youth, so much so that he was compelled to wear a wig. He was induced to use a bottle of your "Hair Restorative," which he liked very much; and after using some two or three bottles his hair grew out quite luxuriantly, and he now has a handsome head of hair. The gentleman's name is Bradford, and he is very well known in our adining counties, many persons can testify to the truth of well. I recommended it to others who had diseases of the head, and in all cases it had the desired effect. You can recommend it without fear as a most certain cure for scald head. Many others will certify that this and many other cases was cured from the use of your most valuable Hair Respectfully yours, GEORGE McSUAIN Restorative. The New York Day Book says: "The majority of Hair Washes, Hair Dyes, Hair Tonics. Hair Oils, and the numberless preparations which are now package I am safe in saying that you will ever afterward and fantastic titles as we see paraded in show window cards and newspaper headings, as hair preparations, are all humbugs of the first water; their real merit, when they possess any, is, that they do no harm.
